THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION, PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

I. Understanding your Health Information

Each time you visit our Physician Practice, a record of your visit is created. This record usually contains your name and other information that may identify you, your symptoms, examination and test result, diagnoses, treatment plan for future care, and financial information. This record is sometime referred to as your "Medical Record" or "Medical Chart". This record allows:

- Doctors, nurses and other health professional to plan your treatment
- Our Physician Practice to obtain payment for services we provide to you, such as from health plan or from you
- Our Physicians Practice to measure the quality of care provided to you

As always we continue to be committed to keeping your Health Information confidential. We will not use or give to others your Health Information without your written permission, except as stated in this Notice.

II. How we will use and give out your Health Information:

a. Treatment, Payment, and Health Care Operations

We will use and give about your health information to provide you with health care treatment, to get paid for our services, and to help us operate our Physician Practice. For example:

- We will give your health information to health care professionals not on our staff, such as to other doctors and hospital staff, who can help you:
- We may send a bill to your health insurance plan or to you
- Our Physician Practice may use your medical record to review our performance and make sure you receive quality health care

b. Other uses and disclosures allowed or required by law

We may use or give out your health information for the following purposes under limited circumstances:

- To people who are involve in your care or who help pay for your care, such as your family, your close personal friends, or any other person chosen by you, to notify them of your location, general health, and to assist you in your health care (such as to pick up medicine or help with follow-up care)

- To government agencies that oversee our Physician practice (such as license and certification inspectors)
- To government agencies that have the right to receive and collect health information (such as to control disease outbreaks)
- When ordered by a judge
- To worker's compensation programs when your health problem is from a work-related injury
- When law enforcement requests information (such as to prevent danger or injury)
- To organ donor agencies (subject to applicable laws)
- For research studies that meet all privacy law requirements (such as research to stop a disease)
- To avoid a serious threat to the health or safety of others
- To contact you about new treatments or medications that will help you
- To business associate of the Physician Practice that help us perform required tasks, such as our accountants, computer consultants and billing companies (only if the business associate agree in writing to keep your health information confidential) as required by law
- For any other purpose required or allowed by law

c. Other uses and disclosures requiring your written permission

Except as stated above, we will use or give out your health information only after getting your written permission on an Authorization form. You may revoke your authorization at any time by notifying us in writing that you wish to do so.

III. Your rights regarding your Health Information

Subject to certain legal limits, you have rights regarding the use and disclosure of your health information, including the right to:

- Request limits on uses of your health information
- Receive confidential communication of your health information
- Inspect and request a copy of your health information
